William W. Speed was the son of Robert Wage Speed, born October 26, 1763 in Franklin, North Carolina. He married Elizabeth Martin on or about 1770 in Oconee, Orangburge, South Carolina. His will was found in a book called Abbeville District Wills and Bonds page 307. The information found is listed below.

Will dated Jan. 2, 1826 in Abbeville Dist. Prov. Jan. 13, 1826. Exts: Wade Speed. John E. Calhoun. Wit: Thos. Dickson, Saml. Calhoun, H. McCoy. Wife, Elizabeth Speed. "Bequeath unto the following, Mary, John, Jas. Speed, Rebecca Kemp, Betsey Tyler, Wade, Florence, Terrel, Wm. Speed, John E. Calhoun."

Robert is the son of William & Mrs. William Speed. The last information found on William Speed was in South Carolina in 1749 in Oconee Orangburge, South Carolina. He is also found in Greenville, North Carolina about 1733 and 1737. William Speed is listed in Virginia in Southmark Parish, Surrey County under William Speed and William T. Speed, born February 19, 1716. His parents were James and Mary Pulley Speed. The following was taken from a book called Speed Family by Orman L. Speed, Pages 48-50.

James Speed was born in England on September 28, 1679. He immigrated to Virginia about 1695. He married Mary Pulley in Surry County, Virginia on September 6, 1711. Mary was born in 1693 and died in June, 1733 in South Carolina. Their children are (1) James Speed, born June 16, 1712 in Surrey, Virginia. (2) John Speed was born in February, 1714 and died March 8, 1785. He married Mintry Taylor on October 6, 1737. She died July 1, 1782. (3) William T. Speed was born February 19, 1716 in Surrey, Virginia. (4) Thomas Speed was born February 28, 1719.

James Speed was the son of John Speed III, M. D. who was educated as a physician at St. John's College, Oxford, and practiced his profession at Southampton, England, as late as 1694.

John Speed III was the son of Dr. John Speed II, born in 1595. He was educated at Oxford and buried in the Chapel of St. John's College, Oxford. He was one of the sons of John Speed I.

John Speed I of London, England, the historian, geographer and antiquarian was born at Farrington County, Cheshire, England, in 1552. His greatest works was the "History of England" with accompanying maps. He is buried in the Chancel of the Church of St. Giles, Cripplegate, London, where a monument stands over his grave.
